The majority of funds are allocated to personnel, with supplemental costs in supplies, travel, training, and administration. Other funding sources include in-kind contributions and parallel grants.

Important Notes

- Ensure all estimated costs are justified and thoroughly researched.
- Clearly differentiate between requested funds and other funding sources.
- Provide supporting documentation for personnel and administrative expenses as needed.
- Totals should be carefully checked for accuracy and consistency.
- The budget should align with the program's objectives and proposed activities.
