Key Assumptions

- Unit price of $120 remains constant for the projection period.
- Marketing push and seasonal promotions are planned for Q4 2024.
- Distribution limited to online channels in the first year.
- Production capacity matches projected demand.

Important Notes

- Revenue projections are estimates and subject to change based on actual market response.
- Always update projections with real sales data after launch.
- Assumptions should be documented clearly and reviewed periodically.
- Consider risks such as supply chain disruptions and competitor actions.
- This document is for internal planning and should not be considered final financial guidance.
