

Minimalist Invoice JSON Example

Sample JSON

```
{
  "invoice_number": "INV-1001",
  "date": "2024-06-16",
  "due_date": "2024-06-23",
  "seller": {
    "name": "Acme Studio",
    "address": "123 Main Street, Cityville",
    "email": "contact@acmestudio.com"
  },
  "buyer": {
    "name": "John Doe",
    "address": "456 Client Rd, Townsville",
    "email": "john.doe@email.com"
  },
  "items": [
    {
      "description": "Logo Design",
      "quantity": 1,
      "unit_price": 400
    },
    {
      "description": "Business Card",
      "quantity": 50,
      "unit_price": 2
    }
  ],
  "subtotal": 500,
  "tax": 50,
  "total": 550,
  "notes": "Payment is due within 7 days."
}
```

Important Notes

- Simplicity: Only essential fields are included for clarity and ease of use.
- Extensible: Add extra fields (e.g., currency, payment method) as needed for your requirements.
- Standardization: Consistent field names help automate processing across systems.
- Legibility: Human-readable for quick review and debugging.
- Validation: Always validate JSON structure before generation or transmission.