5. Consent & Authorization

I, the undersigned, am the parent or legal guardian of the minor named above. I hereby grant permission and consent for the minor to travel as described in this document. I authorize the accompanying adult (if named above), or other responsible individuals, to act on my behalf in all matters related to this trip, including medical and emergency decisions as needed.

6. Liability Waiver

I understand and accept that travel involves risk, and I release and hold harmless any accompanying adults, organizations, agents, or representatives from all liability for injury, loss, or damage sustained by the minor during this trip, except in cases of gross negligence or intentional misconduct.

Important Notes:

- A travel consent form may be legally required when a minor travels without one or both parents/guardians.
- Signatures should be witnessed and/or notarized when possible for increased legitimacy.
- Check destination country/region requirements for additional documentation or legalization needs.
- Always carry copies of identification and relevant legal documents while traveling.
