Standard Product Liability Exemption Letter

Dear Sir/Madam,

This letter serves as formal notification that Acme Corporation disclaims all liability for damages or injuries arising from the improper use, misuse, or unauthorized modification of our products as referenced in your agreement/purchase order, Invoice No. #456789, dated May 25, 2024.

Our products are designed and manufactured according to industry standards with appropriate quality control measures. However, any warranty, guarantee, or representation, either express or implied, does not extend to damages or defects resulting from:

- Use of the product for purposes other than those specified in its documentation;
- Unauthorized alterations or modifications;
- Negligence, improper installation, or maintenance by parties other than Acme Corporation;
- Failure to follow all published usage instructions or safety guidelines.

By accepting delivery of our products, you acknowledge and agree to these terms of exemption. This exemption applies to all direct, indirect, incidental, or consequential liabilities that may arise from use of the aforementioned products.

Sincerely,

Michael Stevens
Legal and Compliance Officer
Acme Corporation

Important Notes:

- This document should be reviewed by legal counsel before use.
- Product liability exemptions may be subject to local laws and regulations.
- Always clearly specify the model, serial number, or invoice in exemption letters.
- Communicate exemption terms to all downstream resellers or users.
- This document does not replace general product safety or compliance practices.
