

Standard JSON Invoice Document Format

Sample JSON Invoice

```
{
  "invoice_number": "INV-2024-0007",
  "issue_date": "2024-06-01",
  "due_date": "2024-06-15",
  "seller": {
    "name": "Acme Corporation",
    "address": "123 Main St, City, Country",
    "tax_id": "AB123456"
  },
  "buyer": {
    "name": "Tech Solutions Ltd.",
    "address": "456 Side Ave, City, Country",
    "tax_id": "XY654321"
  },
  "items": [
    {
      "description": "Consulting Services",
      "quantity": 12,
      "unit_price": 100.00,
      "total": 1200.00
    },
    {
      "description": "Subscription Fee (June 2024)",
      "quantity": 1,
      "unit_price": 200.00,
      "total": 200.00
    }
  ],
  "subtotal": 1400.00,
  "tax": 140.00,
  "total": 1540.00,
  "currency": "USD",
  "payment_terms": "Due within 14 days",
  "notes": "Thank you for your business."
}
```

Important Notes

- JSON invoices use a structured, machine-readable format for electronic processing and integration.
- Field names and structure should remain consistent for interoperability between systems.
- All monetary amounts and dates should follow standard formatting (e.g., ISO 8601 for dates).
- Sensitive information such as tax IDs must be protected according to applicable data protection regulations.
- Customization may be necessary based on specific legal or industry requirements.